CAUTION.
WHEREAS permission has been given, agreeably to the By Laws, to the Overseers of the Poor to cause the manure in the streets to be collected for the purpose of cultivating the land belonging to the town, for the benefit of the Alma Mater, all persons are hereby cautioned against removing said manure, as the Inspector of Police will exact the penalty of all such as violate the law.
By order of the Selectmen.
ISAAC ADAMS, Chairman.
Portland, March 3, 1818.

N. B.—The penalty is one dollar for each half cord of manure taken from the streets, without permission in writing from the Selectmen.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
To the Honourable Justices of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, for the second eastern circuit, begun and holden at Warren, in and for the county of Lincoln, on the second Monday of January, A. D.
1818.

YOUR petitioner would humbly represent that he is seized in common of one undivided thirteenth part of a lot or tract of land situated in Bristol, in said county, containing about one hundred and five acres—together with the buildings thereon belonging together with one Henry Follett, James Hackleton and Jane his wife in her right, James Follett, Daniel Follett, Hester Follett and Peggy Follett, and other persons to your petitioner unknown, which said tract or lot of land is bounded as follows, to wit: east by land owned and improved by Rufus Curtis and James Given north by land owned by Thomas Follett, west by land owned by John Follett and south by Pemaquid Salt river, so called, which said tract or lot of land is the same that was formerly owned and occupied by Henry Follett late of said Bristol, deceased—And your petitioner prays that your honors would cause partition to be made of the afore-described real estate, and that his aforesaid share thereof may be set off and divided from the rest according to the statute in such case made and provided so that he may hold the same in severalty, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

MARIUS HOW.
NAT. COFFIN, Clerk.
Copy Attest,

Lincoln ss.
C. C. Common Pleas, Jan. term 1818.
ON the within petition ordered—that the petitioner give notice by serving his cotenants named in his petition, with an attested copy of his petition and this order thereon, fourteen days at least before the session of this court to be holden at Wiscasset on the fourth Monday of April next, and also by publishing this petition with this order thereon in one of the Portland papers three weeks successively, the last publication to be thirty days at least before said April term, that all persons interested may then and there appear and show cause if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

SAMUEL T. ARMSTRONG,
Theological Printer and Bookseller, No. 50, Cornhill, Boston, HAS NOW IN THE PRESS ANOTHER EDITION OF Scott's Family Bible,
IN SIX VOLUMES OCTAVO.

Vol. 5 and 6, are now ready for delivery.
Vol. 1 will be ready about March 14. Vol. 2, May 9. Vol. 3, June 24. Vol. 4, Aug. 22—
At which time it is intended to raise the price AT LEAST THREE DOLLARS A SET.

TERMS OF PUBLISHING.
1. It shall be printed on good white paper, with a fair type, and be equal to ARMSTRONG'S first edition.
2. It will be comprised in six large volumes, containing the Old and New Testaments, with the Introductory Observations to the Books, &c., and the inestimable NOTES and PRACTICAL OBSERVATIONS. The marginal references, which by the generality of readers are never used, will be omitted, and thereby room will be made to put the Notes & Practical Observations in a LARGER TYPE, for the accommodation of all readers, but particularly the aged; thus uniting small volumes with a good fair type, and making these editions, for common use, the best and cheapest editions ever published. Those who wish for the References, can be supplied with Scott's Reference Bible, which is much more convenient, for $5.00.

3. Persons who procure subscribers for this work will be allowed Every Sixth Copy Gratis; 2 copies for 10; 3 for 15; 4 for 20; 5 for 25; 6 for 30; and in same proportion for any number, however large. And if only two copies are taken, a reasonable compensation will be made, in order that no one may lose the benefit of any exertions.
4. The volumes will be ready once in three months, well done up in boards, with strong cartridge paper backs, at three dollars a volume; or three dollars and fifty cents, bound in sheep and lettered, payable on delivery. Thus, for the trifling sum of 25 cents a week, (which may be easily saved in many ways), can be had this popular and excellent work. It will be funished in about 18 months. The Names of Subscribers who patronize this edition will be printed at the close of the work.
It is hoped a great number of persons will be found who will circulate these proposals, one at least in every town, and it is confidently believed that there is not a town but what contains at least five persons willing to have the work; and the terms of a dollar a month, for one year and a half only, are so very easy to be complied with, that little objection can be made on the score of expense. Two volumes of the Second Edition, containing all the New Testament, are now ready for delivery.

Extracts of letters to the Publisher, from Ministers of different religious denominations.
From the Rev. Dr. Griffin—"I esteem Dr.
Scott's Family Bible, eminently calculated to promote the cause of truth and piety. It seems scarcely possible for one to read daily the notes and Observations in the Family Bible, without becoming a wiser and better man." Rev. Asa Eaton, of Boston—"I am happy to learn that you are about giving to the public a new edition of Scott's Family Bible. It is a treasure which every family ought to possess. For the success of your undertaking you have my best wishes and fervent prayers." Rev. Daniel Sharp of Boston—"Dear Sir, The name of Scott is so well known, and his character as an author so firmly established, and so justly admired in the religious world, that a recommendation of his Family Bible, appears almost superfluous. The more it is read by pious Christians, the more extensive will be its circulation." Rev. Dr. Holmes of Cambridge—"Dear Sir, I believe it (Scott's Family Bible) peculiarly suitable for the use of families and private Christians as being eminently adapted to advance the knowledge of the Holy Scriptures, and in harmony with their grand design, to make men wise to salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus." Rev. Dr. Baldwin of Boston—"I feel free to say, that in my estimation it deservedly ranks among our ablest and best commentaries. All the leading doctrines of Christianity, as professed and maintained, by many of the most eminent reformers, are in my judgment very happily illustrated and enforced." Rev. James Winchester of Boston—"I cordially unite in the above recommendations." From the Rev. Dr. Dana of Newburyport—"Dr.
Scott's Commentary, has merited and obtained a distinguished popularity. His practical observations, constitute a fund of rich, diversified and impressive instruction. Even a few of them read to a family in the morning, cannot fail to furnish its members with materials for profitable reflection through the day. The style is judicious and happy; being neither above the ignorant nor below the learned. It is uniformly perspicuous, pure and energetic; and sometimes, with its subject, rises into sublimity. Above all, the spirit which pervades the work, is excellent. It is the meek, affectionate, healing, yet faithful spirit of the gospel."

Rev. Dr. Morse of Charleston—"Dear Sir, The character of Dr. Scott's Commentary on the bible is so generally known and so highly approved that I deem further recommendations needless. This most excellent and useful work I ardently wish was in every family in the United States."

Rev. Dr. Sanders of Medfield—"Sincere inquirers into a knowledge of duty will always rise from a perusal of its pages with minds more enlightened, with good resolutions strengthened, and with the best affections invigorated. The Practical Observations are particularly valuable and give to this work its most distinguishing excellence."

Rev. Joshua Bates of Dedham—"Sir, I am pleased with your proposals for publishing Scott's Family Bible and sincerely wish you success in the undertaking. I am acquainted with no commentary on the Sacred Scriptures, which I would more cordially recommend for general use. If you execute the work with your usual fidelity and care I have no doubt, that it will be well patronized by the religious public."

Rev. Joshua Huntington of Boston—"Perhaps in no way can ministers, instructors of youth, and private Christians, do greater service to society than by exerting themselves to disseminate this truly invaluable work." I subjoin a few extracts from a circular, published by the Rev. JOSEPH EMERSON, late pastor of a church in Beverly, author of the Evangelical Primer &c. it may be proper just to say, the circular was printed entirely without my knowledge, the extracts follow:
"Six editions of this great work have been published in this country."

"I have had considerable opportunity to examine and compare specimens of all these six editions, and am decidedly of opinion, that most people would greatly prefer ARMSTRONG'S EDITION, now publishing in Boston. As the fold is octavo, the volumes are not nearly so large as those of the quarto editions; but the paper is finer and whiter; the execution handsomer; the print, to appearance, nearly as large; and as it can be turned to the light with much less inconvenience, it may perhaps be read with equal ease and pleasure. It has the advantage of being cheaper, less cumbersome and more elegant."

"ARMSTRONG'S EDITION therefore, is the one which I can most highly recommend for the use of families. It is peculiarly calculated to supersede the use of a large Bible; and in two respects it will answer a better purpose, merely for reading the scriptures, as it is less cumbersome, and may be read by several persons at the same time." 10w Boston, Jan 19-
